

HOW TO BE A FANTASTIC-SENSATIONAL GOOD ENOUGH KID
ALICE PEEL

- The ultimate guide for kids and parents to discover that feeling ‘good enough’ is already within our reach
- Brings kids, teachers and parents together to unpack life’s common dilemmas using humour, real stories from children, and evidence-based invitations for feeling and staying mentally fit
- Gives children an opportunity to understand different wellbeing practices in a ‘non-preachy’, irreverent and relatable style
- Helps kids at any age, and sets them on a path to being a legend and transforming the world around them

Age range 8 to 12

You don’t need to be fantastic or sensational, just good enough.

How to be a fantastic sensational good enough kid is the book children, parents and teachers have been waiting for. Alice Peel, co-founder of Grow Your Mind – a groundbreaking wellbeing program that helps children develop resilience – takes on the life skills and emotional dilemmas ‘good enough’ kids face every day. Packed with great advice on how to be mentally fit and resilient and how to deal with jealousy among other emotions, How to be a fantastic sensational good enough kid also includes ‘non-painful’ ideas on practising gratitude, and is chock-a-block with fascinating brain facts and inspiring stories. It’s the only guide you’ll ever need to be a good enough kid.

‘This book is a game-changer for kids!’ – Dr Sarah McKay, Neuroscientist

‘This book should be in the hands of every primary school child.’ – Nicole Molloy, Principal, Green Square Public School

THE COLT FROM OLD REGRET

DIANNE WOLFER, ILLUSTRATED BY ERICA WAGNER

- A poetic response to the well-known Australian poem ‘The Man From Snowy River’ by Banjo Paterson, written from the Colt’s perspective
- Author Dianne Wolfer is the 2024 winner of the Western Australian Premier’s Literary Award for Children’s Book of the Year
- Illustrator Erica Wagner is the 2024 winner of the CBCA New Illustrator Award
- The end matter will include the full text of Paterson’s original poem, as well as informative and engaging text that delves into the history of bush poetry, a Banjo Paterson bio and a section on the Brumbies in the Snowy Mountains

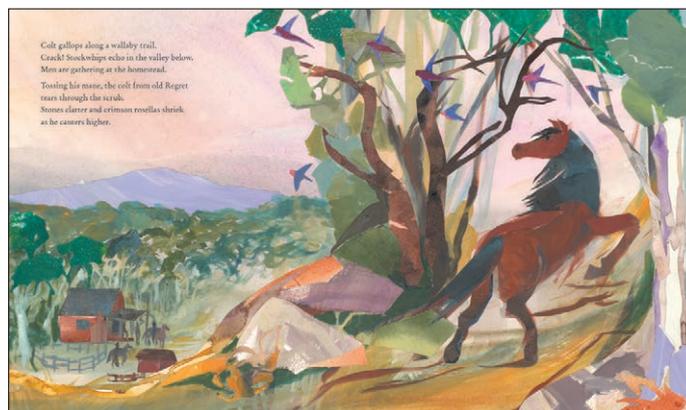

Age range 6+

Tossing his mane, the Colt from old Regret tears through the scrub. Stones clatter and crimson rosellas shriek as he canters higher.

You may have heard the story of the man from Snowy River and his fearless ride through the mountains. This is Colt’s story, of nickering mares and a rearing stallion. How did Colt escape the man? What did Colt see, feel and smell as he charged through the bush?

Beloved children’s author Dianne Wolfer responds to ‘The Man from Snowy River’, creating an essential companion to the original poem. It is illustrated with exquisite collages by Erica Wagner, which convey the depth of emotion with great tenderness. They encapsulate the mood of Wolfer’s text, transporting the reader into the Snowy Mountains.

Endmatter includes the full text of Paterson’s poem, along with additional information on Paterson himself, brumbies and the Snowy Mountains, and bush poetry. All gathered together, this is a new Australian classic in the making.

TAKING THE LONG WAY HOME

JAKE HOPE AND BRIAN FITZGERALD

- A lovely portrayal of the close relationship between uncle, nephew and niece
- Entering into the spirit of play and adventure empowers the children
- Each spread conveys a sense of journey – the reader feels they are taking their eyes for a walk and going on a voyage of discovery
- Illustrations which give the protagonists wonderful personality, warmth and energy

Age range 3 to 6

Normally Zarah and her brother are collected from school by their dad, who rushes them home taking every shortcut. But today, Uncle Jerome is collecting them, and he takes them on 'The long way home'. Reluctant to go further than necessary, the children complain at first, but are soon caught up in amazing adventures, as their uncle gets them to use their five senses to conjure up a world of fun and imagination.

Birds become pterodactyls, ripples in the water become crocodiles...they soon realise that the best adventures only happen on the long way home!

A SEED GROWS

ANTOINETTE PORTIS

- Rhythmical text, simple words and bright clear pictures appeal to little ones, and older children will enjoy the information about the plant life cycle, and the activities
- Lively interaction between text and vibrant pictures make this a stimulating reading experience for all ages
- Info section, quiz and activities give added value

Age range 3 to 6

'A seed falls, And settles into the ground, And the Sun shines, And the rain comes down, And the seed grows...'

To understand how a seed becomes a sunflower, you have to peek beneath the soil and wait patiently as winding roots grow, a stalk inches out of the earth, and new seeds emerge among blooming petals.

With evocative and lively illustrations, A Seed Grows offers a close-up view of each step of this process and the ways in which flowers and seeds depend on other creatures, with a striking fold-out spread of a full-grown sunflower and additional material at the back of the book explaining the science of plant life cycles.

The final quiz and suggested activities are a fun way to re-inforce what has been learnt.

TREASURE ISLAND

Barnes & Noble Collectible Classics: Children's Edition
ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON,
ILLUSTRATED BY N. C. WYETH

- This action-packed adventure established the classic pirate story as it was written for more than a century afterward

Age range 8 to 12

When he attends a dying patron of his family's boarding house, young Jim Hawkins has no idea that the man was once a pirate, or that the man's possessions include a map that will lead whoever has it to the island where the notorious buccaneer, Captain Flint, buried his treasure.

Jim and his guardians hire a boat to sail to the island, unaware that crew they have hired includes many members of Flint's pirate band, among them former quartermaster Long John Silver, and that they hope to claim the treasure for their own.

LIKE A GANNET

KIRSTEN EALAND,
ILLUSTRATED BY DEB
HUDSON

- Empowering book for children who may lack confidence to try something new

Age range 3 to 6

Little Francie feels capable and confident in the water, so when she watches her bigger cousins diving like gannets from the diving boards at the local pool, she wants to do it too. But can she be a gannet if she cannot even dive?

Like A Gannet is a story about aiming for the stars, or in this case the highest diving board. A fresh take on a first experience story, it depicts the joy of swimming and the universal excitement and apprehension of that first time on the diving board.

A WAY HOME

EMILY BREWIN

- This is a big-hearted novel that explores the complexities of growing up with a parent who is struggling

Age range 13+

Sixteen-year-old Grace lives under a bridge in Melbourne's CBD. It's cold and wet, but hidden. Safe, at least, until she can go home.

When winter drives her to the City Library one morning, Grace meets Louie, a weird kid with his own problems, and discovers a community piano. The piano reminds Grace of her mum, a celebrated pianist whose mental illness makes life a rollercoaster – and not always a fun one.

When Grace comes up with a plan to find the help she and Mum need, life begins to look up.
